

Grasping the opportunities the world presents us

Ian Proudfoot

KPMG Global Head of Agribusiness

31 July 2023: New Zealand Apples and Pears Conference 2023, Christchurch

"Consistent measurement of metrics and the right targets"

"Certainty to support investment in integrated supply chains"

"Fully understand the products impact on Nature and the exposures that a target does not mitigate"

"We have to have CHEAP Food!"

"Technology will fundamentally change decades old supply chains"

"Geopolitical challenges are putting food supply at risk"

"Growing inequality in society is more obvious to everybody yet the impacts this has on the future of food are being ignored"

"We appear blind to the exploitation of labour across food supply chains"

"The food system needs to take responsibility for the global obesity epidemic"

A blue tractor with a red plow is shown in a field of green crops. The image is overlaid with a blue-to-purple gradient. The text "Building loyalty through recognition that trade must be for all" is written in white, bold, sans-serif font across the middle of the image.

Building loyalty through recognition that trade must be for all

Capitalising on innovation Accelerating digital transformation

A landscape photograph featuring a field of hay bales in the foreground, rolling hills in the middle ground, and a range of mountains in the background. The sky is a mix of blue and purple, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The text is overlaid on the upper half of the image.

Letting robots be robots while we unlock the potential of our people

Emerging themes on our agenda

- Green energy
- Indooring production
- A generation of anxious people
- Beyond food inequity
- Transparency
- The Bio and Blue economies

C L I M A T E !

“Climate adaption needs to be accelerated – we don’t seem to recognise that we have reached a break point (we can see it in the increased regularity of failed crops). Food security now requires us to diversify our risk to maintain supply”

kpmg.com/nz

The information contained herein is of a general nature and is not intended to address the circumstances of any particular individual or entity. Although we endeavour to provide accurate and timely information, there can be no guarantee that such information is accurate as of the date it is received or that it will continue to be accurate in the future. No one should act on such information without appropriate professional advice after a thorough examination of the particular situation.

© 2022 KPMG New Zealand, a New Zealand Partnership and a member firm of the KPMG global organisation of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Limited, a private English company limited by guarantee. All rights reserved. The KPMG name and logo are trademarks used under license by the independent member firms of the KPMG global organisation.